Stephanie Hock and Paul Murphy were recently announced as recipients of the North Fond du Lac Police Benevolent Association scholarship for 2005. The scholarships are offered by the Police Benevolent Association annually to graduating seniors of North Fond du Lac High School.

Stephanie Hock, the daughter of Stephen and Gail Hock of North Fond du Lac, will be attending UW-LaCrosse where she will be studying Nuclear Medicine. Hock was chosen as a recipient of the $500 scholarship for her services to the community as well as excellence in school. Her contributions to the community include acting as a volunteer for the Salvation Army and Presentation Church.

Paul Murphy, the son of Kevin and Rita Murphy of North Fond du Lac, will be attending UW-Whitewater where he will be studying Management Computer Systems. Murphy was chosen as a recipient of the $500 scholarship for his excellence in school as well as his volunteer services to the community. Murphy's contributions to the community include service provided to the Salvation Army and Free S.P.I.R.I.T. Riders.

Chief of Police William Lamb said, "The North Fond du Lac Police Benevolent Association is proud to award these scholarships to Stephanie and Paul. We would like to congratulate and thank both of them for the positive impact they continue to make in our community."
