The North Fond du Lac Police Department has taken a report of a suspicious incident occurring on Wednesday, February 28, 2007 at approximately 3:35 PM near the intersection of McKinley Street and Adams Avenue in North Fond du Lac. A lone 9-year old female was walking home from school when a vehicle pulled up near her. This vehicle was occupied by a lone white male. The male subject asked the female to get into the car. He told her that he would drive her home and give her $10.00 for doing so. The girl fled the area and the vehicle was last seen traveling east on Polk Street from Chapman Avenue. Further descriptions of the vehicle and suspect are as follows:

Vehicle: older (rounded-off) green 4-dr passenger vehicle, some rust, multiple bumper stickers concerning racing, black dice hanging from the rear-view mirror and the back window was filled with beanie-baby animals

Suspect: white male, mid 20's, dark hair with a patch of blond on the back, dark brown eyes, mustache, wearing a black long sleeve racing shirt, wearing sunglasses with some sort of fire logo on them

North Fond du Lac Police are asking that anyone with information about the incident call Detective Sergeant Brian Liethen at (920) 906-5555 or they can report the information anonymously by calling (920) 906-4777 ext. 3.
